The screenshot shows the official website of the Australian Government's Department of Immigration and Border Protection. The top navigation bar includes the coat of arms, links for 'Australian Government' and 'Department of Immigration and Border Protection', a 'Ministers Contact us' link, a search bar, and a magnifying glass icon. Below the navigation, there are four main categories: 'Individuals and Travellers', 'Businesses, Agents and Trade Professionals', 'Australian Border Force', and 'About Us'. The 'Individuals and Travellers' category is selected, showing a breadcrumb trail: Home > Individuals and Travellers > Studying in Australia. A large blue header section titled 'Studying in Australia' contains the text 'Information for students who are considering studying in Australia.' To the right of this text is a photo of a young man and woman smiling. The main content area discusses various visas for study, mentioning recent reviews of the student visa programme. A 'Higher education' section provides information for university or tertiary level study, mentioning the Higher Education Sector Visa (subclass 573) and Postgraduate Research Sector Visa (subclass 574). A sidebar on the right allows users to search all visas by passport type (e.g., All, Australian, New Zealand, etc.) and includes a 'Search visas' button.
